

From the collections of the Historical Society of Washington, DC

Historic Anacostia Walking Tour

Create a lasting memory for you, your family and friends by joining Friends of Main Street Anacostia, Inc. as we tour historic landmarks throughout one of Washington, DC's most culturally-rich neighborhoods—Anacostia.

Tour stops include Rosie's Row, Frederick Douglas home, Old Carver Theatre, and the "Big Chair".

Date: 06/16/07

Time: 10:00am

While the tour will cover a number of historic landmarks, it lasts only about an hour. Led by a tour guide, you will be amazed at the cultural and historic facts that you'll learn.

It's fun, educational, and you'll have an opportunity to visit some of DC's best businesses along the Main Street Anacostia corridor.

Reserve your spot TODAY! Reservations fill up fast!
Contact Yavocka Young 202-889-5090 or yavocka.young@mainstreetanacostia.org.

Come see what others already know—Historic Anacostia: A Jewel of the City!

Copyright Digital Image Smithsonian Institution, 1998

Location Details:

The tour will meet and begin at the Anacostia Metro Station/Howard Road entrance. All participants should plan to meet at the Howard Road entrance. The tour will begin promptly at 10:00am.

For more information log onto:
www.mainstreetanacostia.org or call 202-889-5090.

The Historic Anacostia tour was made possible by funding from tour partners including the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Bank of America, and the Anacostia Economic Development Corporation.

